a la Lucie

159 N. Limestone St., 252-5277

American eclectic cuisine with a French flair reminiscent of France's West Bank where white tablecloths and leopard print converge.

Alfalfa

141 E. Main St., 253-0014

Feeding vegetarians and carnivores alike with innovative and eclectic homemade eats for over 35 years. Live music most nights and the works of local artists featured on brick walls.

Cheapside Bar & Grill

131 Cheapside Drive, 254-0046

This downtown favorite has the best of both worlds: inside and outside dining. The patio is a popular place to dine and socialize. Happy Hour is a must while visiting here.

Good Foods Chapter 2

Central Library lobby, 140 E. Main, 422-6802

Soups, salads, and sandwiches made fresh with organic ingredients, plus pastries, fair trade coffees, a full espresso bar, assorted beverages and deserts, and sushi delivered daily.

Natasha's Bistro Boutique

112 Esplande, 259-2754

Serving New American Cuisine, meaning everything from ratatouille and pizza to Asian salads, pastas and stir fries. An urban bistro in a space with a warehouse/theater feel, "Definitely too funky to franchise."

Stella's Kentucky Deli

143 Jefferson St., 255-3354

Simple, high quality foods that emphasize the superior flavors and textures of fresh, local ingredients. All sandwiches, salads, soups, and desserts are made by hand, in house, using seasonal ingredients.

A Taste of Thai

101 W. Main St., 255-1155

Noodles, currys, and other classic Thai dishes, prepared to order spicy or mild.

Third Street Stuff & Coffee

257 N. Limestone, 255-5301

Like walking into a fairy tale with a punk edge, this music and art venue serves up soups and sandwiches (and the likes of Lucky Charms cereal) with fair trade coffees and espresso

Take Some Time...

Friday Luncheon

Join a party of 12 at one of four downtown restaurants where we've reserved tables: Alfalfa, Cheapside, Natasha's, or Taste of Thai. At 11:45 a.m., look for our board members who will be leading groups there.

Conference Evaluation Form

Have you filled out your conference evaluation form? These help us plan future events. Forms are enclosed in your conference tote bag and may be submitted at the registration or book table.

Book Table

Visit our book table for a selection of publications by our presenters, which can be signed at presenters' readings. The lantern poster and blank journals commemorating the conference, both designed and hand-printed by Cricket Press, are also for sale. If you already know which books you want, fill out the Book Order Form in your conference tote bag for easy purchasing.

Saturday Afternoon Tea

A thirty-minute break for sipping tea, mingling, and browsing the book table. Sign up for the 90 Seconds Open Mic if you'd like to read at Natasha's Bistro at 5:30 p.m.
